Halliburton Foundation Giving Guidelines

The Halliburton Foundation will accept grant proposals from U.S. based non-profit organizations that serve the following areas:

- Education
- Health
- Social Services (health-related)

Requests for grants in non- U.S. locations should be made directly to the Halliburton office doing business in that part of the world.

Organization Eligibility

To be considered for a corporate grant from Halliburton's U.S. Foundation the organization must:

- Provide evidence of 501(c)(3) tax exempt status as granted by the Internal Revenue Service, or of a political subdivision (schools, municipal foundations, etc.)
- Demonstrate that supporting the request will be of benefit to the company, employees, the community and customers.
- Indicate how many people will be impacted by the project.
- Summary of the how the program or project will be accomplished and the expected results.
- Provide a timeline for the project.
- Provide budget information and other sources of funding for the project.
- List of Board of Directors noting their business affiliations.
- Submit its most recent audited financial statement or form 990.

Note: Strong preference is given to organizations in areas where Halliburton has a significant presence as measured by facilities, employees and customers.

The Halliburton Foundation will not consider support to the following:

- Individuals
- Organizations that do not have 501(C)(3) or equivalent status
- Religious, Fraternal or Veterans organizations
- Athletic organizations
- Trips, sporting events, tours and transportation
- Advertising, film or video projects
- Athletic organizations
- Projects in locations not geographically aligned with Halliburton facilities and operations or company goals
- Political or union organizations

Click here to apply for Halliburton Foundation grant funding.