INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS PROGRAM - STUDENT APPLICATION

The Advanced International Business Program, launched in the Fall of 2014 is a selective program geared to prepare motivated students for matriculation into the country's top universities.

This cohort program, with a dedicated Advanced Programs counselor offers the following options: domestic and international internships, the International Baccalaureate diploma and the full breadth of AP offerings. Notable courses include International Management, Entrepreneurship, and a Capstone course among others.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

- A minimum cumulative 3.5 Grade Point Average (GPA) and satisfactory citizenship are required for application.
- Grades must be maintained through 2nd semester of 8th grade.
- Because of the comprehensive, hands-on, high level nature of our program there will be a $2,200 early fee be added to your tuition. This will cover various costs such as access to a dedicated counselor, the procuring of guest speakers, and some specialized material and equipment as needed by staff for some courses.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

1. Complete this application form.
2. Supply a copy of your transcript or most recent report card
3. Choose two teachers to complete a teacher recommendation form. Provide each teacher with stamped envelopes addressed to:

Fairmont Preparatory Academy
Office of Admissions
Attn: Advanced Programs Counselor
2200 W. Sequoia Avenue | Anaheim, CA 92801
4. Upon receipt of the completed application form, recommendations and report card/transcript, students will be notified of conditional acceptance. March 1st is our first application deadline. Afterwards, admissions will be rolling until the program is full. Admission is contingent upon a student maintaining a minimum GPA of 3.0.
