My sales

You will start seeing data here as you sell items and services.

This section helps you track and organize your workflow by manually switching the status of a sales order.

Suggested use:

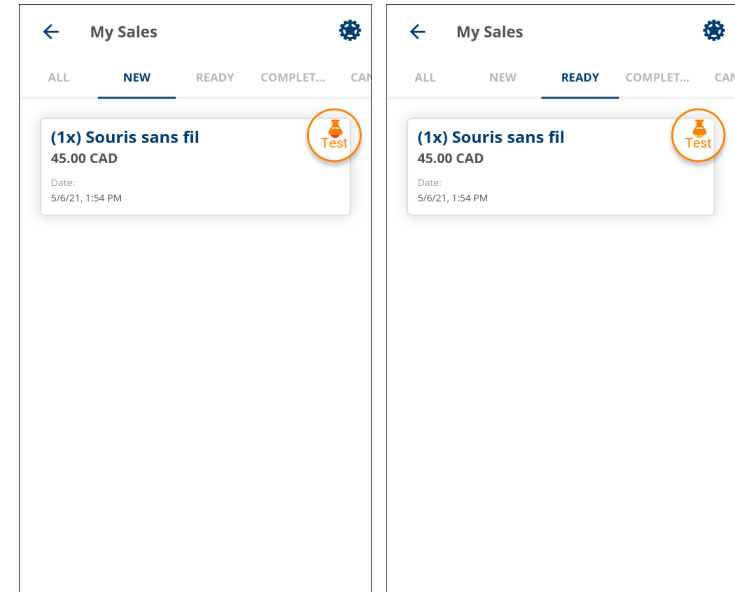

This feature allows for easy tracking of a sales order status or to share in real time with the team in place handling and preparing orders for shipping.

You can assign protocols and procedures based on the order status.

The staff monitoring the orders will know what to do based on them.

In the example above, the status of the order is manually changed from NEW to READY.

The Staff monitoring the My Sales section will now see that the order went from NEW to READY and can follow the procedures tied to this order status.
