

SERIOUS PROTECTION FOR YOUR SMALL PERSON

GUIDELINES FOR JUVENILE LIFE INSURANCE COVERAGE

Death benefit protection may not be something we want to think about for an infant or child. However, juvenile life insurance provides several benefits even when your family remains happy and healthy like we all hope it will.

BENEFITS INCLUDE:

- Additional future life insurance coverage that is guaranteed¹ as long as the policy remains in force
- The opportunity for tax-deferred cash value accumulation over the long term
- Access to cash value once the amount is sufficient, through loans and withdrawals;² providing funds that could be put toward such things as college tuition, a wedding, or a future home
- Potential for a tax benefit³ through the annual gift tax exclusion

The following are the guidelines when applying for a Transamerica Financial Foundation IUL® II (FFIUL II) or *Transamerica Financial Foundation IUL®*⁴ juvenile policy:

Please note: For the purpose of suitability and cost-effectiveness the annual household insurance premiums should not exceed 20% of the annual household income.

¹ Provided through a Guaranteed Insurability Rider, available at an additional cost. Guarantees based on the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company. For all in force coverage not with a Transamerica Affiliate company, a copy of the policy page(s) providing the face amount and premiums is required.

² Loans, withdrawals, and death benefit accelerations will reduce the policy value and death benefit. Provided the policy is not and does not become a modified endowment contract (MEC), 1) withdrawals are tax-free to the extent that they do not exceed the policy basis (generally, premiums paid less withdrawals) and 2) policy loans are tax-free as long as the policy remains in force. If the policy is surrendered or lapses, the amount of the policy loan will be considered a distribution from the policy and will be taxable to the extent that such loan plus other distributions at that time exceed the policy basis. Policy owners should consult with and rely on their tax advisor regarding their particular situation.

³ The ability to defer or eliminate taxes depends on the facts and circumstances of the policyholder's situation. The company and its agents and representatives do not give tax or legal advice. Any tax and/or legal advice policy owners may require or rely on regarding this material should be based on their particular circumstances and should be obtained from an independent attorney.
