

Coalition Cyber Admitted Appetite Guide

Businesses are facing new kinds of risks

Digital risk is everywhere and evolves minute by minute. Every wireless transaction, link clicked, and stolen device leaves your clients vulnerable to a cyber attack that can close their businesses permanently.

Coverage highlights

Active Cyber Insurance protects your business from digital risks including stolen funds, lost business income, cyber extortion, breach response, and other costs that result from a security failure or data breach.

Third Party Coverages

 Network & Information Security Liability	 Multimedia Content Liability
 Regulatory Defense & Penalties	 PCI Fines & Assessments

First Party Coverages

 Breach Response Services	 Business Interruption And Extra Expenses
 Breach Response Costs	 Digital Asset Restoration
 Crisis Management & Public Relations	 Funds Transfer Fraud
 Cyber Extortion

Added via Endorsement on Most Policies

 GDPR Coverage

Appetite highlights

Coalition's admitted product is available in 48 states and the District of Columbia. The admitted product isn't available in Alaska and Wyoming.

- Revenue: less than $25M in annual revenue
- Limits: $10M
- Industry limitations: Tech E&O isn't available on admitted paper.
- Ineligible industries:
 - Adult media
 - Cannabis
 - Casinos & Gaming
 - Data aggregators (collection and sale of personally identifiable information)
 - Payment enablement
 - Food/agricultural products (palm oil)
 - Food/agricultural products (palm oil)
 - Transportation - Air Freight and Logistics (National Postal Delivery Services)

Give your small business clients protection with Coalition Active Insurance.

Get a quote