

Factsheet: Basware Network – e-Invoice Sending

One Solution. Endless Value.

It's all possible when you automate invoice sending with Basware

Send all invoices worldwide with one solution

- It only takes one step to send invoices to all your customers, regardless of size, type, or location. Simply send your invoices electronically to Basware and we'll take care of validation, format conversions, and invoice routing.
- Businesses, public sector customers, and consumers can receive invoices in the formats they want, requiring no operational change on their end.

Deliver invoices in your customers' preferred formats

- There isn't a format we can't accommodate, making it a breeze to onboard customers. e-Invoices are delivered through the Basware Network directly to your customers' ERP or AP systems.
- If your customer can't receive e-invoices, we can send them as a PDF to their email.

Struggling to meet different customer requirements for delivering invoices? Looking for ways to simplify your invoice sending process while also cutting costs? Wanting to revolutionize your department with one global, electronic solution for sending invoices to all your customers?

- If your customers don't have the capability to receive e-invoices or invoices by email, we also offer printing services.

Maximize efficiency and simplify your processes

- The transition from paper to e-invoicing provides instant improvement to your productivity. Compared to slow snail mail, send electronic invoices at the speed of light and prevent invoices from being lost in transit.
- Don't worry about catering to your recipients' preferred data formats or transfer method—Basware does it for you.
- Gain 100% visibility into your entire invoice delivery process.

Get started with the help of Customer Enablement Services

Depending on your needs, Basware also offers tailored Customer Enablement services for you. With the help of enablement services, customers get started faster with their e-invoicing services.

PRO TIP

Compared to conventional paper invoices, for every 10,000 invoices sent electronically, your company will save as much as 66,000 euros.

We're happy that we've been able to transform so many customers to email. It saves time here. In the old days, we would have printed and packed invoices and made sure they were posted but it was time-consuming and uncertain. Currently we are sending email invoices to 96% of our customers. It is fantastic! I have a happy CFO."

Why Basware?

- 1. Global Compliance – We're here to support you through all aspects of compliance, so you don't have to keep up with the ever-evolving complexity of regulatory and commercial needs. For years, we have been gathering regulatory and best practice knowledge from local markets, building new format conversions, and connecting locally authorized compliance partners and tax authorities. We're VAT compliant in over 50 countries and PEPPOL certified.
- 2. Largest Open Business Network – You'll be backed by the Basware Network—the largest open business network. That means, if you're a customer on our network, you have limitless reach and connection. Our expansive network is compliant in more than 50 countries and has millions of buyers and suppliers already transacting on it. What if your customers opt to use another business network? No problem. Through our interoperability agreements with more than 220 global networks, you'll easily reach more than 1 million customers.
- 3. Scalability and Flexibility – Basware provides the most scalable and flexible e-Invoicing solution on the market. Building local functionalities and establishing new IT projects in each country can be complex and expensive, using energy and resources best spent elsewhere. Basware offers excellent technical capabilities to meet requirements by providing multiple ways of delivering e-invoices and supporting any invoice format.
