2. Product description

This durable, all-round abrasive is very well suited for high speed sanding in a multitude of applications. EXACT II has a tough, latex coated base paper which makes EXACT II a balanced, flexible product with good initial aggressivity and good durability. The full resin bonding and the even, semi-open special treated aluminium oxide grain coating provide a constant stock removal resulting in an excellent surface finish. The special surface structure guarantees good clogging resistance also when sanding materials with higher clogging tendency
