HOW IT'S MADE

Each grain has been designed from scratch. It all starts with noise that gets stretched and twisted to create a wood inspired grain. If you don't see something you like, get in touch with us to talk about custom options.

1

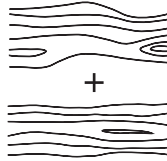

The grain begins as mathematically based noise.

2

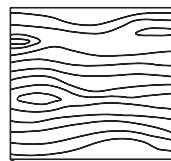

The noise is stretched, twisted, and deformed.

3

The grain is colorized and adjusted to add depth. We create enough variations so that there's virtually never a repeat.

4

Digital textures run edge-to-edge, just as grain runs through a piece of wood.

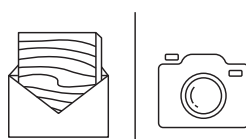

CUSTOM GRAIN AND COLOR

Custom color and grain matching is available to enhance continuity throughout your space. To begin this process, please get in touch with us to send your reference materials.
