OPENING EARLY 2025

Archer Music Hall, the premier venue located in the heart of Downtown Allentown, adjacent to both Philadelphia and New York City, will be the cultural hub of Allentown and the perfect target for your next private event. Built from the ground up, the space, the sights, the sounds, and the energy all blend seamlessly at Archer Music Hall to create an unforgettable experience. The versatile layout, with the spacious Music Hall on the first floor, is perfect for large group events and meetings. For a more intimate gathering, the secondary performance space, Arrow, is on point, with its own private entrance, dedicated dressing room, and direct stage access, all of which can be booked separately or as a full venue buyout. Whether you're hosting a corporate event, private concert, or social celebration, our team is committed to delivering an exceptional experience. Archer Music Hall and Arrow can accommodate up to 2,125 guests, ensuring your event is nothing short of extraordinary.
