A TASTE OF HISTORY

With a storied history dating back to the 1890's, Palm Beach's original Main Street was once bustling with local shops, boutiques and the island's first town hall. It's where prominent members of the community gathered to socialize. Today, the revitalization of this palm-lined avenue, now known as Royal Poinciana Way (named in honor of Henry Morrison Flagler's first Palm Beach hotel), is home to Henry's Palm Beach.

A nod to the island's leisure lifestyle envisioned by Flagler, The Breakers' founder, more than a century ago, Henry's reflects the timeless American spirit where people gather to dine and enjoy a cocktail among friends, family and neighbors.
