Henry's Palm Beach, the Island's Newest Destination for Timeless American Cuisine

PALM BEACH, FL – With much anticipation, The Breakers Palm Beach unveiled the newest addition to its dining collection, Henry's Palm Beach, on June 17. A newcomer to the island's culinary scene, Henry's showcases elevated comfort food with character and a hint of nostalgia. It is located on Royal Poinciana Way, Palm Beach's original Main Street, at Via Flagler by The Breakers, an alfresco plaza that features a curated collection of boutiques, eateries and residences.

Named after resort founder and Florida visionary, Henry Morrison Flagler, Henry's approachable concept complements its inviting menu of American favorites. Specialties range from raw bar and "handhelds" (sandwiches), to USDA-Prime beef and fresh fish. Daily specials include classics such as chicken pot pie, beef Wellington and fresh pastas. Among its signature dishes: Pigs in a Pretzel Dough Blanket served with a warm pilsner cheese fondue; a Tavern Twin Patty Burger topped with craft cheddar and a house sauce; Butter Crumb Dover Sole accompanied by a side of creamy rice grits and tartar sauce; and a Smoked Salmon Pizze, available during weekend brunch, prepared with tomato, Bermuda onion, lemon and a dill crème fraîche. "The food is familiar, with something unexpected about every dish," said The Breakers' Executive Chef - Restaurants, Anthony Sicignano.

In addition, guests can savor traditional and eclectic cocktails, such as Cucumber Blush with Tito's Vodka, prosecco, cucumber and mint simple; Hurricane, featuring light and dark aged Caribbean rum, Chinola, fresh orange and lime, agave and grenadine; and Negroni, made with Nolet's Gin, Campari and Carpano Antica Vermouth. A local, artisanal beer selection, wine flights and an expertly curated wine list, courtesy of The Breakers' award-winning master sommeliers - Virginia Philip (The Breakers' Wine Director) and Juan Gomez – are also available. Equally tempting are Henry's "Prohibition" non-alcoholic beverages, blending a variety of fresh fruit and mixers.

For Henry's 4,200 sq. ft. interior, The Breakers enlisted longtime collaborator and celebrated hospitality designer Adam D. Tihany, working as design consultant to Dailey Janssen Architects, to create an inviting, casually elegant setting with a lively Palm Beach energy. The playful design and fresh color palette create an open, dynamic atmosphere throughout the restaurant. Guests feel warmly welcomed upon arrival, where a prominent central bar, situated on a base of colored mosaic limestone, is the commanding focal point. The Bar features walnut and metal detailing, plum and gold leather barstools and dropdown bronze shelving. Tiled, end-grain wood floors anchor the entire room, while table and banquette seating in shades of plum, chartreuse and gold, provide a rich pop of color. Overhead, shaded bronze chandeliers and oversized sconces illuminate the restaurant and its large-scale, coffered ceiling with a warm, radiant glow. A series of arched, floor-to-ceiling windows, alternating with sophisticated, textured wall coverings, encircle the restaurant, infusing abundant natural light throughout the dining and semi-private dining areas.

With the original opening scheduled in March, The Breakers' food & beverage team adeptly reevaluated the restaurant's operational strategy in order to swiftly adapt to the new realities within today's dining environment. "We were in a unique position to evolve Henry's operations, layout and menus prior to opening our doors," said Nick Velardo, Vice President Food and Beverage - Restaurants at The Breakers. "As the health and safety of our team, guests and community are our highest priority, we have implemented Health & Safety Precautions that allow us to provide a safe and satisfying dining experience at the onset," he continued.

Located at 229 Royal Poinciana Way, Henry's Palm Beach is The Breakers' 10th restaurant and second off-site venture on the island, along with the highly-popular Echo (230A Sunrise Ave.), which features the distinctive cuisines of Asia. Henry's is open on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 5 PM – 10 PM (closed on Tuesday), Friday from 5 PM – 11 PM, Saturday from 11 AM – 11 PM, and Sunday from 11 AM - 10 PM; weekend brunch is available 11 AM – 3 PM (full menu served).
