

AMERICAN PUBLIC UNIVERSITY

Preparing public health professionals to meet tomorrow's challenges.

These programs enable public health professionals to fit quality learning into their busy schedules. With 8- or 16-week formats and classes that start every other month, you can earn your degree from wherever you choose to live, work, and learn.

ACCREDITATION

American Public University is part of American Public University System (APUS), which is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, an institutional accreditation agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. The Master of Public Health Program is accredited by the Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH), making it the first fully online institution to have its program so recognized.

FACULTY PRACTITIONERS

Our faculty is comprised of public health professionals who are experts in their fields and work in diverse practice settings. They are passionate about improving and optimizing human well-being. They bring experience and field-tested knowledge into the classroom and curriculum to deliver education that is relevant with current and emerging public health policies and practices.

PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAMS

- Master of Public Health (Accredited by CEPH)
