

HOW TO TRANSFER YOUR FBINA CREDITS TO AMERICAN MILITARY UNIVERSITY

TRANSFER CREDITS SAVE YOU TIME & MONEY

Your FBINA courses could earn you transfer credit toward a degree or certificate program at American Military University (AMU). See course equivalencies and transfer credit possibilities on the reverse side. For more details and to confirm that the course you want to take is eligible for your program, please contact CreditAward@apus.edu.

You can also contact an AMU admissions representative to take advantage of our no-cost preliminary transfer credit review, or use our course-by-course equivalency database to find out if the college credits you previously earned might transfer to AMU. Visit AMUonline.com/FBINA to learn more about transfer credits.

Omnibus credit is transfer credit which applies to a student's specific area of study within their major/concentration requirements, but for which AMU does not offer an equivalent course.
