

We are committed to providing world-class travel management services while instilling the highest standards of corporate responsibility into everything we do. Lessening our impact on the environment and investing in sustainability initiatives are of the utmost importance. At Travel and Transport Ultramar, our mission is to exceed our customers' travel management expectations and directly contribute to the creation of a thriving environment and global community for them, our employees, and the world.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Michel Botbol".

Michel Botbol

President, Travel and Transport Ultramar and International