

GEORGE W. BUSH PRESIDENTIAL CENTER

KLYDE WARREN PARK

DALLAS MUSEUM OF ART

SENIOR ITINERARY

DAY ONE

ARRIVAL: WELCOME TO DALLAS

Start your Dallas experience at Southfork Ranch, the iconic setting made famous by the series Dallas. Tour the Ewing Mansion and explore the Dallas Legends exhibit, filled with memorabilia, cast interviews and memorable moments from the show. Groups of 25 or more can make it a true Texas welcome with a Chuckwagon Dinner featuring a singing cowboy greeter and a BBQ meal with all the fixins'.

DAY TWO

MORNING: SEEK, WANDER, EXPLORE

Start the morning at San Martín Bakery, a Guatemalan bakery and restaurant serving breakfast, freshly baked breads, pastries and coffee. Enjoy breakfast at the restaurant or grab a few pastries to go.

Then, explore presidential history at the George W. Bush Presidential Center, where exhibits explore the presidency of George W. Bush and pivotal moments in American history. Or visit The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza, located in the historic Texas School Book Depository building. The museum is dedicated to the life, assassination and legacy of President John F. Kennedy.

FOR LUNCH: TAKE A BREATH OF FRESH AIR

Head to Klyde Warren Park for lunch in the heart of the city. Grab a bite from the daily rotating food trucks then enjoy the park's green spaces, games and lineup of free activities and events.

AFTERNOON: TAKE IN THE ARTS SCENE

Stroll along Flora Street through the Dallas Arts District, the largest contiguous urban arts district in the country. Explore the Dallas Museum of Art, Nasher Sculpture

Center and Crow Museum of Asian Art each offering a distinct look at art and culture from around the world.

FOR DINNER: DINE WITH A VIEW

End the day high above Dallas at Crown Block inside Reunion Tower. Enjoy steaks, seafood and panoramic skyline views from one of the city's most recognizable landmarks. Group dining is available for parties of 12-35, with larger private events available through The Crown Room.

DAY THREE

MORNING: STOP AND SMELL THE ROSES

Begin the day at the Dallas Arboretum and Botanical Garden, where 66 acres of gardens overlook White Rock Lake. Explore seasonal displays, enjoy lunch among the gardens or reserve a three-course seated tea in the DeGolyer Tea Room. Fall visitors can experience

TERRY BLACK'S BARBECUE

DALLAS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

THE SAMURAI COLLECTION

Autumn at the Arboretum, when more than 100,000 pumpkins, gourds and squash transform the garden.

For another option, visit the Henry B. Tippie National Aviation Education Center at Dallas Executive Airport. Explore historic aircraft, World War II artifacts and the world's largest collection of authentic World War II nose art on public display.

FOR LUNCH: EXPLORE A DALLAS NEIGHBORHOOD

Head to the Bishop Arts District, a walkable neighborhood filled with locally owned restaurants, boutiques and galleries.

Or explore Deep Ellum, one of Dallas' most storied entertainment districts. Dig into Texas barbecue at Pecan Lodge or Terry Black's Barbecue, then explore Blues Alley, where colorful murals celebrate the musicians and musical traditions that helped shape Deep Ellum.

AFTERNOON: RETAIL THERAPY

Spend the afternoon at NorthPark Center, home to luxury retailers, restaurants and museum-quality art collection. For even more shopping, head across the street to The Shops at Park Lane, where outlet and value-focused retailers include Nordstrom Rack, Bloomingdale's The Outlet Store, J.Crew Factory and more.

EVENING: SPORTS OR THE ARTS

Sports fans can go behind the scenes at AT&T Stadium, home of the Dallas Cowboys, or catch the Dallas Mavericks or Dallas Stars at American Airlines Center. Tour and game availability vary by date.

Prefer the performing arts? Return to the Dallas Arts District for an evening performance. Hear the Dallas Symphony Orchestra at the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center or catch opera, Broadway, dance and performances from Texas Ballet Theater at venues throughout the district.

DAY FOUR

MORNING: ONE LAST DALLAS EXPERIENCE

Before heading home, visit The Samurai Collection in the Harwood District. The Ann & Gabriel Barbier-Mueller Museum is the only museum of its kind in the United States and features one of the world's largest collections of samurai art and armor. Its rotating exhibitions showcase centuries of craftsmanship, from full suits of armor and helmets to masks and other objects from Japanese warrior culture.

Then it's time to head home with plenty of reasons to come back to Dallas.

CONTACT US

CHRISTINE DAVIS

Tourism Sales and Services Manager

214-558-3981

christine.davis@visitdallas.com