WHY MEET IN DALLAS?
'CAUSE WE CAN!

As a top meeting and visitor destination, Dallas exudes its own unique energy that makes the impossible, possible. Experience the Dallas difference — where innovation meets hospitality, and your event vision becomes a reality.

We can fly you in from anywhere in the country in 4 ½ hours or less, with two international airports offering direct flights from 250 destinations.

We can accommodate groups of all sizes with 35,000+ hotel rooms and ample meeting space throughout the city.

We can redefine capacity by leading the nation in hotel growth with 189 projects and 24,000+ rooms in the pipeline.

We can serve you a fusion of multicultural culinary experiences with cutting-edge cuisine and elevated restaurants.

We can deliver dynamic, inspiring venues from upscale rooftops and concert halls to one-of-a-kind locations.

We can activate the nation's #1 Dallas Arts District into an exclusive, unparalleled event by taking over the entire district.

We can introduce you to a diverse community of people, immersed in a rich tapestry of cultures, religions, and lifestyles.

We can boast innovative audacity with our New Convention Center and entertainment district coming in 2029.

We can guide you through over 20 unique neighborhoods, from edgy arts districts and iconic sports hubs to historic landmarks.

We can offer unbeatable value with low operational costs and competitive rates, maximizing your event budget and ROI.

REBECA PEREZ

SALES MANAGER
NORTHEAST | MID-ATLANTIC | SOUTHEAST

469-490-9392

REBECA.PEREZ@VISITDALLAS.COM

Rebeca is a Sales Manager at Visit Dallas and is thrilled to promote her hometown. With 25 years in the hospitality industry, she discovered her passion for sales and event planning at Adams Mark Hotel. Excited about showcasing Dallas' offerings, Rebeca is eager to collaborate with clients and partners.

Beyond her professional life, she enjoys traveling and cherishes every moment spent with her family.

VISIT DALLAS