PERFORMANCE OPPORTUNITIES AND CLINICS

Take learning beyond the classroom with performance opportunities, master classes and clinics that connect students with Dallas stages and performing arts professionals. For the full list see our Student Handbook

New to our list this year:

DALLAS CHILDREN'S THEATER

Give your students a stage of their own at Dallas Children's Theater, with performance spaces ranging from the intimate 140-seat Studio Theater to the 390-seat Baker Theater. Free parking for up to 440 cars makes arrival easy for groups.

LONGHORN BALLROOM & AMPHITHEATER

Perform where music legends have taken the stage. Built in 1950, the historic Longhorn Ballroom has welcomed artists including Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson, Ray Charles and B.B. King and now offers indoor and outdoor performance spaces for groups of 300-5,000.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR STAY

Receive a rebate of up to 10% of the daily contracted room rate when you book 15+ room nights at a participating Dallas hotel.

With 180+ participating hotels across Dallas, the incentive is available for leisure, educational and incentive travel groups - whether they fly or drive.

How it works: Submit your pre-event application for approval before your group arrives. Following your stay, submit the post-event form and hotel pick-up report within 30 days. dallastpid.com/tour-operators

CHOOSE YOUR OWN ADVENTURE

What will your students discover in Dallas? Explore three adventures designed around performing arts, STEM and educational experiences – each with plenty of memorable stops along the way.

PERFORMING ARTS

Ideal for choir, orchestra, band, drumline, dance, and theater students

DAY 1

PERFORMING ARTS & ICONIC VIEWS

MORNING

Explore the Dallas Arts District with an AD EX docent-led walking tour, taking in landmarks like the Dallas Museum of Art, Nasher Sculpture Center, Crow Museum of Asian Art and Dallas' renowned performance venues.

AFTERNOON

Take the stage with a free student performance at Klyde Warren Park or AT&T Discovery District, then head up more than 500 feet for panoramic views from Reunion Tower's Geo-Deck.

EVENING

Make a splash at the Nancy Best Fountain with a 45-minute choreographed water show or experience dinner and a show at Medieval Times.

DAY 2

MUSIC & THE STAGE

MORNING

Experience the Dallas Symphony Orchestra at the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center, where student musicians can learn directly from DSO musicians in a master class, sit in on a live open rehearsal or experience a youth concert.

AFTERNOON

Visit the Dallas Farmers Market, where groups can tour and perform for the lunch crowd, then explore one of Dallas' legendary music venues, the Longhorn Ballroom.

EVENING

Grab dinner at Campisi's before experiencing a live performance from Broadway Dallas or another show on the city's performing arts calendar.

DAY 3

HISTORY, CULTURE & FUN

MORNING

Visit the George W. Bush Presidential Center, where student groups can perform on-site, explore presidential history and snap a group photo in the full-size replica Oval Office. K-12 field trips are free; groups of up to 50 students can book 30-minute arrival slots, making it easy to stagger buses.

AFTERNOON

Stop at Buca di Beppo Park Lane for a group-friendly meal, with complimentary coach driver meals, gluten-free and vegetarian options and boxed lunches available for the bus.

EVENING

Explore NorthPark Center with an art tour or hit the ice at Galleria Dallas, with group-friendly dining and bus access, before stepping into the worlds of your favorite shows at Netflix House Dallas.

ANOTHER GREAT OPTION

AFTERNOON

Make it an economics double-header with MoMoney, the Museum of Money, followed by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas just three blocks away. Federal Reserve visits are free and typically take 45–60 minutes; groups of 20+ should provide advance notice, and all visitors must bring government-issued photo ID. Bus drop-off is available along Pearl Street.

EVENING

Catch a Dallas Stars or Dallas Mavericks game at American Airlines Center and enjoy group-friendly dining nearby.

DAY 3

STEM CAREERS & CAMPUS LIFE

MORNING

Give students a look at STEM careers in action. At BioLabs at Pegasus Park, students can work alongside researchers through day in the life of a scientist programming. High school groups can also explore biomedical research and health careers through UT Southwestern STARS tours of working research labs. Programs vary, so inquire early.

EVENING

Get a taste of college life with a UT Dallas campus visit, available for groups of up to 40 students in grades 7+. Book at least three weeks ahead. While there, add a free visit to the on campus Crow Museum of Asian Art.

DINNER

Wrap up the trip with a Texas-style group meal at Lockhart Smokehouse.

ANOTHER GREAT OPTION

Turn a theme park into a classroom during Six Flags Over Texas Education Days, where students can explore the physics behind the rides using free educational workbooks and their own g-force data. Education Days are offered in the spring, so groups should plan ahead for 2027 dates.

BISHOP ARTS DISTRICT

DEALEY PLAZA

REUNION TOWER GEO-DECK

KLYDE WARREN PARK

EDUCATION

Ideal for a general education track, highlighting history, government and art

DAY 1

HISTORY & CIVICS

MORNING

Step into a defining moment in American history at The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza, where you can explore spaces recreated as they appeared in 1963 and view Dealey Plaza from the museum's live webcam. Student groups require a minimum of 20, one chaperone per 10 students and three weeks' advance booking.

LUNCH

Head to Klyde Warren Park, where rotating food trucks give students plenty of options while offering an easy outdoor break between activities.

AFTERNOON

Discover some unexpected pieces of history at the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library. The free, eight-floor attraction houses a rare Dunlap broadside of the Declaration of Independence, a Gutenberg Bible leaf and an original copy of Shakespeare's First Folio. No advance booking required.

ANOTHER GREAT OPTION

Take in panoramic views from Reunion Tower's Geo-Deck before heading to Bishop Arts District for a group dinner.

DAY 2

HUMAN RIGHTS & THE ARTS

MORNING

Explore history through a powerful, personal lens at the Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum.
