

Compare your performance against peer, national, and state averages

Take advantage of Origence consulting's exclusive Indirect Lending Benchmark Report and experience the difference in the data. Designed as a diagnostic tool to help credit unions accurately and efficiently compare their performance against the national, state, and peer averages, it easily identifies new opportunities for performance improvement while avoiding unwanted risks.

Book to look ratio

Best practices to help higher funding rates

Book to approved ratio

Comparison of funded system approved loans versus funded manually approved loans

Funding trends

From dealer selection to underwriting strategy and decisioning, you set the rules

Origination metrics & average APR

Review of average APR and loan to value to meet strategic goals

The industry's only indirect lending report

With a yearly subscription, your credit union has access to 12 months of valuable data distributed via email in PDF format. The report is readily available to all subscribers.

Ready to boost your indirect lending?