

EDUCATIONAL TOURS

MIDDLE SCHOOL TOUR

Middle School: Discover Peru

9 DAYS

Explore Peru and everything it has to offer, from the colorful streets of Lima to the cloud-brushed citadel of Machu Picchu. This immersive trip will spark every middle-schooler's sense of wonder. They'll visit an observatory to see constellations the way ancient Andeans did, create a unique ceramic tile at a legendary local studio, and hear stories from Quechua weavers while observing—and taking part in—their traditional craftsmanship. Introduce your middle-schoolers to Peru through iconic landmarks and cultural moments they can't experience anywhere else.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

Structured itinerary designed to engage middle-schoolers

Full-time Tour Director who's confident guiding this age group

All transportation, including round-trip flights

Daily breakfast, lunch, and 7 dinners featuring regional cuisine

Longer hotel stays for ease of travel (7 nights, 3 hotels)

2 expert-led sightseeing tours in iconic destinations

10 tickets to bucket-list experiences and attractions

Experiential learning that expands worldviews

eftours.com/

YOUR TOUR NUMBER

Take in this tour's highlights

Lima

Join your expert guide on a walking tour of Peru's capital, exploring notable sites and immersing yourself in Lima's rich history and culture.

Visit the Larco Herrera Museum and view artifacts that span over 5,000 years of Peruvian history. Learn about the bond that existed between ancient societies and the natural world, and stroll through the beautiful prize-winning garden that surrounds the famous museum.

MADE FOR MIDDLE-SCHOOLERS

Visit Parque de la Reserva, a beloved public space and one of the oldest parks in Lima. Watch the Magic Water Circuit fountains transform Lima's night sky into a kaleidoscope of music and lasers in a dazzling display.

Sacred Valley

Gain insight into local craftsmanship and Peruvian pottery firsthand through a pottery workshop with world-renowned ceramicist Pablo Seminario and artist Marilú Behar. Design your own ceramic tiles with the guidance of their expert team.

Take an expert-led tour of Ollantaytambo, which was the royal estate of Emperor Pachacuti during the ancient Inca Empire.

Experience the breathtaking ancient Inca city, Machu Picchu, with your local guide. Learn about its architectural wonders and the ingenuity and skill of the Inca civilization.

MADE FOR MIDDLE-SCHOOLERS

Venture through the towering mountains of Ollantaytambo and sit shoulder-to-shoulder with Quechua weavers to witness their craft up close—and even join in under their expert eyes. Build connections and hear authentic stories over a farm-fresh lunch with community members.

Participate in a jewelry workshop with local artisans. Channel your own artistic energy when you try your hand at creating unique jewelry pieces through traditional techniques.

Explore the bustling Pisac Market, known for selling regional produce and vibrant crafts.

Cuzco

Take a walking tour of Cuzco, the former epicenter of the vast Inca Empire, which stretched from Colombia to Chile. Today, Cuzco is known for its longstanding art forms and natural beauty.

MADE FOR MIDDLE-SCHOOLERS

Make your own chocolate bar at Choco Museo and learn about the history of cacao and how it's sustainably farmed along the way.

Combine culture and astronomy at Cusco Planetarium, observing Inca constellations to see how ancient Andeans understood the sky.

