

The Group Plan

Fundraising becomes more fun when you're doing it together. Whether you're a group of friends, teammates, or classmates, you can combine your strengths to reach your goals faster and build camaraderie through the process.

3 questions to get you started

- What is your fundraising goal?
- How many events or activities do you want to organize?
- Who will lead the fundraising efforts?

Sell candygrams at your school

⌚ 1–2 weeks 💰 $0–20 ●○○ Low effort

How it works: Deliver small treats with personalized notes to classmates, teachers, or staff.

- Decide on pricing and create a simple order form or online sign-up.
- Promote your candygrams through school announcements, posters, or social media.
- Deliver items on the chosen day.

Organize a community carwash

⌚ 5 hours prep + event 💰 $10–30 ●●○ Medium effort

How it works: Wash cars for donations in your neighborhood or school parking lot.

- Gather supplies like buckets, soap, sponges, and towels.
- Recruit friends or family to help run the event efficiently.
- Publicize the event locally and suggest a donation amount for each car.

Host a trivia night with ticketed entry

⌚ 2–3 weeks 💰 $0–50 ●●● High effort

How it works: Organize a trivia event related to your tour destination.

- Prepare questions for multiple rounds.
- Promote the event and sell tickets or suggest donations for entry.
- Add prizes, refreshments, or themed decorations to make the night special.
