Your itinerary

Think of how strong communities could be if they learned from both their past and the present. That's exactly what your group will explore in Berlin, where you'll hear about the long-lasting effects of the Cold War directly from the people who experienced it. Then, cook alongside refugees as they share how their new neighbors have aided their transition. Through it all, consider the myriad ways Berlin has utilized the power of community and reconciliation to shape a better future.
