

The Quickstart Plan

Short on time? You can still make significant fundraising progress. These high-impact and effective ideas are here to help you make the most of the time you have.

3 questions to get you started

- What is your fundraising goal?
- How much time and resources are you willing to dedicate?
- Which fundraising activities best suit your goals, time, and resources?

Take advantage of your personal fundraising page

EF gives everyone their own, unique fundraising page. However you're raising money, display a QR code or link to yours to encourage people to visit and donate.

Flash clothing sale

🕒 1–2 weeks 📺 $0–20 ●○○ Low effort

How it works: Clean out your closet and give your clothes a new life by selling them online.

- Use platforms like Depop, eBay, or Poshmark to list your items.
- Promote your sale on social media or among friends and family.
- Consider bundling items or offering deals to encourage more purchases.

Use our Instagram story bingo

🕒 1 week 📺 $0 ●○○ Low effort

How it works: Share a fun donation-themed bingo template on your Instagram story.

- Encourage friends and followers to complete the bingo and donate when they do.
- Post updates or shout-outs to engage participants and show progress.
- Bonus: Offer small rewards or recognition for completing the bingo.

Organize a yard sale

🕒 5 hours leading up to the event 📺 $0–30 ●●○ Medium effort

How it works: Host a sale with used or donated goods to raise funds.

- Collect items from home or community donations in the week leading up to the event.
- Publicize the sale locally through flyers, social media, or community boards.
- Price items to attract buyers and maximize donations for your cause.
