Cajas National Park

Anyone can see the world.

YOU'RE GOING TO EXPERIENCE IT.

As you can see, your EF tour includes visits to the places you've learned about in school. That's a given. But it's so much more than that. Immersing yourself in new cultures—surrounded by the people, the language, the food, the way of life—creates inspirational moments that can't be listed in an itinerary. They can only be experienced.

And the experience begins long before you get your passport stamped and meet your Tour Director in your arrival city. It begins the moment you decide to go. Whether it's connecting with other travelers on Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram, or delving deeper into your destinations with our personalized learning experience, the excitement will hit you long before you pack your suitcase.

When your group arrives abroad, everything is taken care of so you can relax and enjoy the experience. Your full-time Tour Director is with your group around the clock, handling local transportation, hotels, and meals while also providing their own insight into the local history and culture. Expert local guides will lead your group on sightseeing tours, providing detailed views on history, art, architecture, or anything you may have a question about.

When your journey is over and you're unpacking your suitcase at home, you'll realize the benefits of your life-changing experience do not end. They have just begun.

@EFtours I attribute my college semester abroad to the love for travel I discovered on an EF Tour in high school #traveltuesday

What you'll experience on your tour

Day 1: Fly to Ecuador

- Meet your Tour Director at the airport in Quito, the Ecuadorian capital carved into a narrow plateau high above the Andean valleys and beneath the peaks of the Pichincha Volcano.

Day 2: Quito

- On your guided sightseeing tour, explore the colonial quarter of Quito, where wrought-iron balconies and majestic stone pillars grace 300-year-old plazas, churches, and palaces. The area was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1978.
- See Independence Plaza and the Government Palace.
- Visit the Compañía de Jesús church, a Baroque marvel with an ornate interior decked in gold leaf.
- Visit the Intiñan Museum, where you'll discover how the Incas determined the location of Earth's center.
- Take an excursion to the equatorial line. If you've ever wanted to stand in both hemispheres at the same time, this is your chance.

Day 3: Quito | Baños

- Travel to Baños.
- Climb the winding staircase alongside the massive Devil's Cauldron waterfall. Be prepared to get wet!
- Take a tour of Baños and see the New and Old Cathedrals.
- Visit an organic chocolate factory. You'll learn how cacao is sourced from indigenous producers, see how the beans are turned into chocolate, and enjoy a variety of samples.
- Try your hand at making traditional Ecuadorian dishes during a cooking class.

Day 4: Baños | Riobamba

- Hike through the Baños forest along the Sendero de los Sauces.
- Travel to Riobamba.
- Visit a rural community and enjoy a traditional homemade lunch with the locals.

Day 5: Riobamba | Cuenca

- Travel to Ingapirca to visit the ruins.
- Continue to Cuenca, the jewel of the Southern Andes and Ecuador's third largest city. Declared a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site in 1999, Cuenca's historic area is a neat grid of cobblestone streets and whitewashed buildings. But the city also embraces modern life, which you will discover at its cafés, galleries, and shops.
- Learn how your food travels from farm to table during a guided visit to the Gastronomic Museum.

Day 6: Cuenca

- Take a Tour Director-led walking tour of Cuenca, where you'll see the Old Cathedral, New Cathedral, and the flower market.
- Visit the Straw Hat Museum to learn about the history of this traditional accessory.
- Enjoy an interactive experience with a local community outside of Cuenca.
- Participate in a traditional dance lesson.

Day 7: Cuenca | Quito

- Visit Cajas National Park.
- Travel to Quito.
- Travel to the airport for your overnight flight home.

Day 8: Arrive home

Traveling to Quito in Ecuador was an amazing experience. Quito is a unique city with lots to see.
