

ANTI-BRIBERY, ANTI-CORRUPTION, AND FAIR COMPETITION

Everyone who conducts business on Halliburton's behalf — from employees, contractors, and suppliers to agents, consultants, officers, and directors — is required to follow our anti-bribery, anti-corruption, and fair competition policies and procedures. Our COBC references relevant policies and practices and our commitment to these principles.

REDWay Responsible. Ethical. Diligent.

OUR REQUIREMENTS

Halliburton employees are expected to conduct business with integrity and to be guided by our core values. Employees must comply with the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the UK Bribery Act 2010, and similar laws that apply to our business. Our employees also must engage in fair competition for business and win it in a legal and ethical manner.

EMPLOYEE TRAINING

Every employee with relevant job functions, as well as employees who work in high-risk countries, must complete our anti-corruption and anti-bribery employee training course. The training course emphasizes Halliburton's core commitment to conduct business the REDWay and to engage in and win business fairly, professionally, and with integrity. It also reviews topics like business relationship management, due diligence, and how to ethically engage in business hospitality and charitable contributions.

Halliburton's Global Ethics and Compliance group supports and supplements our web-based anti-corruption training courses with in-person and virtual trainings each year. Our Global Ethics and Compliance team visits with employees and contractors in our geographies, product service lines, and functions, including at manager boot camps, Halliburton corporate and operational facilities, and corporate gatherings.

Global Ethics & Compliance team member leads in-person training in Kuwait