

Katy Store Grand Opening Press Release

Living Spaces Celebrates Grand Opening of Katy, Texas Store with A Series of Special Events

Top home furnishings brand, Living Spaces, is preparing to open its 31st store in Katy, Texas and will be celebrating this momentous occasion with a series of special events. In addition to a Grand Opening Event on Friday, September 30, Living Spaces will host a VIP Preview Event on Wednesday, September 28th and Thursday, September 29 from 5 pm to 9 pm. Guests are invited to enjoy refreshments provided by Ribs on Wheels on Wednesday and Capital Grille on Thursday and will be eligible for exclusive offers.

Located in the shops at Katy Village just across the highway from Katy Mills Mall, Living Spaces Katy marks the continuation of the brand's brick and mortar expansion, and they are showing no signs of slowing down anytime soon. "We're thrilled to be opening yet another location in Texas, which has become our home away from home," explains Grover Geiselman, founder and CEO of Living Spaces. "As a Texas native, nothing makes me happier than to grow our presence here and bring our extensive offering of furniture and accessories to Katy residents."

Living Spaces has earned a reputation as one of the leading home furnishings retailers, providing guests with an unparalleled selection and outstanding values. Rather than limit the brand to one aesthetic, Living Spaces prides itself on having something for everyone. The Katy store in particular will offer over 148,000 square feet of various styles, including four custom homes that represent different looks, from a modern farmhouse and a traditional Spanish casita to a modern/contemporary home and rustic industrial loft.

Guests will also delight in the designer displays from such acclaimed industry heavyweights as Joanna Gaines, Drew and Jonathan Scott, as well as Nate Berkus and Jeremiah Brent. These celebrity partnerships allow anyone to bring home their sought-after styles at affordable prices.

As guests peruse the floor, they will also find bedroom, living room, dining room, home office and outdoor collections, in addition to a vast assortment of accessories and Living Spaces' own exclusive line of Elements – a veritable bazaar of one-of-a-kind discoveries from all over the world, which are available in limited quantities for a limited time.

For those in the mattress market, Living Spaces includes the Revive Sleep Center, where experts can pair them with the perfect sleep solution. In addition to a proprietary offering, the center has all of the top mattress brands in house.

When guests are not shopping for their home, they can partake in delicious food and beverages at the well-stocked bar and café, while their little ones enjoy a kids' fun space that's made just for them.
