

Living Spaces Celebrates Opening of 28th Location in Manteca, California

Leading home furnishings retailer, Living Spaces, is celebrating the opening of its 28th location in Manteca, California with a week of special events. In addition to a Friends and Family Event on June 8 and a Soft Opening on June 9, there will be a Grand Opening Launch Day on June 11 to mark this exciting occasion.

The 130,000-square-foot building will serve as the anchor for a new commercial center dubbed Union Crossing, which is located on the southwest corner of the Union Road and 120 Bypass interchange. Not only will this massive showroom allow guests to shop a vast assortment of furniture and décor for every room, it will include a Revive Sleep Center, which offers a variety of top mattress brands and rest essentials. There is even a fun room to keep the kiddos entertained, plus charging stations for electric vehicles in their parking lot.

With sought-after collections from Magnolia Home by Joanna Gaines, as well as a line of timeless, sophisticated pieces from Nate Berkus and Jeremiah Brent, Living Spaces has earned a reputation as a premier designer destination. Thanks to these offerings and more, guests can bring coveted looks to life for less.

“We couldn’t be more thrilled to expand our California presence to Manteca,” expressed Grover Geiselman, CEO and founder of Living Spaces. “We relish the opportunity to become a source of inspiration for this community. We want to help all of our guests elevate their homes and improve their lives through a stylish selection of high-quality, well-priced designs.”

Living Spaces fills out its comprehensive furniture shopping experience with convenient services like upholstery customization at no extra cost, 3D room planning, same-day delivery and free next-day shipping.
