

Living Spaces Launches Campaign to Support Camp Ronald McDonald for Good Times

[LA MIRADA, Calif., November 1st, 2023] - Living Spaces, a California-based furniture retailer, is excited to announce the launch of a new 3-month campaign in support of Camp Ronald McDonald for Good Times.

Camp Ronald McDonald for Good Times is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing a positive and recreational experience for children with cancer and their families. Through this partnership, Living Spaces aims to make a lasting impact on the lives of these brave children and their loved ones.

"We are incredibly thrilled and honored to be launching this impactful campaign to support Camp Ronald McDonald for Good Times," exclaimed Living Spaces CEO, Grover Geiselman. "This amazing organization goes above and beyond to provide crucial assistance and support to families in need, and we are immensely proud to be able to contribute in any way we can. Together, we can make a meaningful difference in the lives of those who need it the most."

As part of the campaign, Living Spaces will be asking guests to donate to this cause with funds going towards helping children with cancer and their families. This contribution will help the organization continue to provide essential programs and services to the children and families they serve.

"We are grateful for Living Spaces' generous support," said Chad Edwards, Director of Camp Ronald McDonald for Good Times. "With their contribution, we can create a nurturing environment for families of children battling cancer. This campaign will provide a safe place where these families can find solace and support during their child's life-saving treatment. Together, we are making a significant difference in the lives of these brave children and their loved ones."

Living Spaces encourages everyone to join in this meaningful campaign by visiting any of its retail stores nationwide. By doing so, they will not only find stylish and affordable home furnishings but also contribute to a cause that brings hope and happiness for those who are most in need. The campaign starts on November 1st and will run through January 31st, 2024.

About Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Southern California

For more than 40 years, Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Southern California (RMHCSC) has helped families with ill or injured children stay together, and close to the medical care their child needs through its six Ronald McDonald House® locations in Bakersfield, Inland Empire, Long Beach, Los Angeles, Orange and Pasadena with the Westside house opening in 2023. A program of RMHCSC, the Ronald McDonald Family Rooms® in CHOC at Orange and CHOC at Mission and Ventura County Medical Center, offer a place for family members to rest, shower and recharge inside the hospital, while being steps away from their hospitalized child. Another one of RMHCSC's founding programs is Camp Ronald McDonald for Good Times, a year-round medically supervised camp for children with cancer and their families, healing the places medical treatments can't reach for patients, siblings and parents. RMHCSC programs not only provide access to quality health care, but they also enable family-centered care ensuring families are fully supported and actively involved in their children's care.
