

Living Spaces Celebrates Another Texas Location with Grand Opening of Conroe Store

Top home furnishings brand, Living Spaces, is preparing to open its 39th store in Conroe, Texas and will be celebrating this momentous occasion with a VIP Preview Event on Thursday, November 16 at 5 pm. Guests are invited to enjoy complimentary refreshments and will be eligible for exclusive offers.

The opening of this store marks the continuation of the brand's brick and mortar expansion, and they're showing no signs of slowing down anytime soon. "We're thrilled to be opening another location in Texas, where we have worked hard to establish a presence," explains Grover Geiselman, founder and CEO of Living Spaces. "Nothing gives me more joy than bringing our extensive offering of furniture and accessories to Conroe residents."

Living Spaces has earned a reputation as one of the leading home furnishings retailers, providing guests with an unparalleled selection and outstanding values. Rather than limit the brand to one aesthetic, Living Spaces prides itself on having something for everyone. The Conroe store in particular will offer over 148,000 square feet of various styles, including modern living, classic living, rustic living, reclining collections and opening price point options, plus four custom homes that represent different looks.

Guests will also delight in the designer displays from such acclaimed industry heavyweights as Joanna Gaines, as well as Nate Berkus and Jeremiah Brent. These celebrity partnerships allow anyone to bring home their sought-after styles at affordable prices.

As guests peruse the floor, they'll also find bedroom, living room, dining room, home office and outdoor collections, in addition to a vast assortment of accessories and Living Spaces' own exclusive line of Elements – a veritable bazaar of one-of-a-kind discoveries from all over the world, which are available in limited quantities for a limited time.

For those in the mattress market, Living Spaces includes a sleep center, where experts can pair them with the perfect sleep solution. In addition to a proprietary offering, the center has all the top mattress brands in house.

When guests aren't shopping for their home, they can partake in delicious food and beverages at the well-stocked café, while their little ones enjoy a kids' fun space that is made just for them.
