

Artist Series by Paperscape

kravetcouture

Bring an artist's touch to your walls

Kravet Couture's Artist Series by Paperscape is a collection of unique wallcovering in collaboration with seven intriguing artists. Bridging the world of art and home furnishings together, this collection presents a striking assemblage of abstract and contemporary art to act as a canvas in an interior.

The motifs in this collection span many genres, color palettes and themes - from abstract to geometric to realism. Each wallcovering is made to reflect the nuance of the artist's hand and honors the artist's vision, while satisfying a sophisticated palette for interior designers.

Fred Simon

Fred Simon creates large scale, very detailed urban landscape drawings on paper using colored pencil and just a bit of oil pastel. A self-taught artist, Simon has been drawing his entire life, but it wasn't until his mid-20's that he got his first studio and decided to dedicate as much of his time as he could to creating this work. His work has been shown everywhere from galleries to community spaces, to storefront windows, and has been sold to private collectors.

Michael Rich

The paintings, drawings and prints of Michael Rich reflect an approach to nature and landscape as a wellspring for spiritual investigation and meditation through the contemporary language of gestural abstraction. With an awareness of the opposing elements of nature's serenity and tenacity, Rich investigates the harmony and irascibility of the natural world through opacity and translucency of color. Michael Rich lives and works in Providence, Rhode Island and Nantucket Massachusetts
