The background of the entire image is a dark, vertically-planked wooden wall. On the left side, three pieces of Japanese fabric are hanging. The top piece is a wide, light-colored fabric with a large, intricate floral pattern in shades of blue, green, and white. Below it is a narrower, darker blue fabric with a subtle, repeating geometric pattern. To the far left, a portion of a third fabric is visible, featuring a bold blue and white pattern. The lighting is soft, highlighting the textures and colors of the fabrics.
