FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1

4 Inscribe

9:00 am

Castro St., San Francisco

Add the names of those you have loved and lost to HIV and AIDS in colorful sidewalk chalk to Castro street sidewalks (between Market and 19th) during Inscribe. This colorful remembrance event honors those who have loved, lived, danced, worked and partied in the Castro.

5 World AIDS Day National Observance

12:00 pm–2:00 pm

National AIDS Memorial Grove
Golden Gate Park, San Francisco

Each year, our community hosts a national observance in the National AIDS Memorial Grove in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park. We bring leaders together from across the country for a national conversation to shine a light on the ongoing struggle to end the epidemic, progress made, and hope for the future. Free and open to all.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 4

9 Still Here

8:00 pm

Landmark Building D, Fort Mason Center,
2 Marina Blvd, San Francisco

A collaboration of the San Francisco AIDS Foundation and the Magic Theatre Workshop, "Still Here" tells the story of how San Francisco, in the face of adversity and unprecedented devastation, a generation found the fortitude to not only survive but to thrive in spite of overwhelming odds. It is a story told through the eyes of ten members of the SF AIDS Foundation's Elizabeth Taylor 50 Plus Support Network that is sometimes powerful, passionate, poignant, and poetic.
