

The Quickstart Plan

Short on time? You can still make significant fundraising progress. These high-impact and effective ideas are here to help you make the most of the time you have.

3 questions to get you started

- What is your fundraising goal?
- How many events or activities do you want to organize?
- Which fundraising activities best suit your goals, time, and resources?

Take advantage of your personal fundraising page

EF gives everyone their own, unique fundraising page. However you're raising money, display a QR code or link to yours to encourage people to visit and donate.

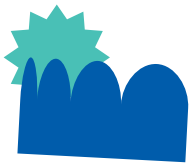

Flash clothing sale

🕒 Annual on holidays or birthdays ●○○ Low effort

How it works: Clean out your closet and give your clothes a new life by selling them online.

- Use platforms like Depop, eBay, or Poshmark to list your items.
- Promote your sale on social media or among friends and family.
- Consider bundling items or offering deals to encourage more purchases.

Babysitting or pet-sitting blitz

🕒 1–2 weeks 📺 $0 ●○○ Low effort

How it works: Offer your time to neighbours and family friends who need help with kids or pets.

- Contact neighbours, family friends, and parents in your community to offer weekend babysitting or pet-sitting services.
- Set a clear rate and mention you're fundraising for your educational tour.
- Block out specific weekend dates you're available and book as many gigs as possible.

Organize a yard sale

🕒 5 hours leading up to the event 📺 $0 ●●○ Medium effort

How it works: Host a sale with used or donated goods to raise funds.

- Collect items from home or community donations in the week leading up to the event.
- Publicize the sale locally through flyers, social media, or community boards.
- Price items to attract buyers and maximize donations for your cause.
