

The Hobby Plan

Who says fundraising should follow a traditional path? Lean into your hobbies to create some momentum and build a plan that feels fun, meaningful, and true to you! Use these ideas to let your interests guide your fundraising journey.

3 questions to get you started

- What is your fundraising goal?
- How many events or activities do you want to organize?
- Which fundraising activities best suit your goals, time, and resources?

Take advantage of your personal fundraising page

EF gives everyone their own, unique fundraising page. However you're raising money, display a QR code or link to yours to encourage people to visit and donate.

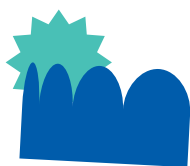

Sell prints, crafts, or art commissions

🕒 2–3 weeks 🖼️ $0–$40 ●●○ Medium effort

How it works: Gather pieces you've made in the past or take commissions.

- Promote your services in your community.
- Display your pieces on a table at school or promote them on your social media accounts.
- Bonus: Offer custom designs or bundles to encourage more sales.

Bake sale with travel-themed treats

🕒 1–2 weeks 🖼️ $10–$50 ●●○ Medium effort

How it works: Host a bake sale centred around your travel destination.

- Gather family or friends to bake or prepare drinks.
- Promote the event in your community.

Offer music/art lessons

🕒 2–3 weeks 🖼️ $0 ●●● High effort

How it works: Teach friends, family, or community members and accept donations for your time.

- Schedule lessons over a 2–3 week period and promote your availability.
- Share your personal fundraising page so participants can donate.
