Let's break the boundaries and create events with boundless possibilities.

We're bringing together best-in-class event platforms, creative and production expertise and supporting technologies.

Our expert team members around the globe are ready to help transform your event experience and deliver seamless connectivity for events of any format, size, location, or complexity.

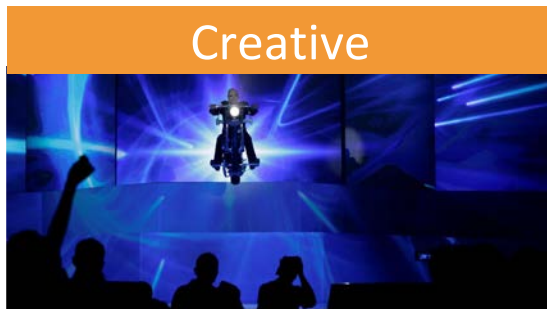

Let's create the perfect event together!

The Encore Difference

End-to-End Event Expertise

Imagine having Creative, Production and Technology solutions fully integrated across your event. Think of the boundless possibilities to seamlessly deliver consistent experiences across geographies, for multiple event types, and from year to year. End-to-end solutions from Encore are a game changer.

Your strategic partner bringing together the right solutions

- > It's our mission to be an invaluable partner on your journey to success.
- > Even at the "what if" stage, our strategists and designers work with you to envision the most engaging ways to inspire participants. By utilising the latest technology solutions, we can help turn those "what ifs" into "why not?"
- > From creative, to production, to technology; for any event, no matter the format, size, or venue, there's nothing we can't do!

Creativity That Inspires

Transforming ideas into experiences.

With a passion for their craft and a drive for excellence, our experts deliver creative solutions that win over audiences. Our strategists and designers work with you right from the start to envision ways to best connect and inspire your in-person participants as well as those joining virtually.

Collaboration is a cornerstone of our approach — together, we will craft a creative strategy that will deliver real results. No matter how big, small, unconventional, or imaginative your next event may be, it's our job to take it to the next level.

Guided Self-Service Virtual Platform

Elevate your virtual event experience beyond streaming services with Cvent Attendee Hub®. This self-service platform allows you to create memorable, measurable and valuable experiences for your attendees than ordinary Zoom or Teams meetings.

With Cvent Attendee Hub® and Encore production, technology and creative expertise, you can seamlessly connect in-person and remote participants for lower complexity events with a short setup lead time – anywhere in the world.

Cvent Attendee Hub Highlights

Integrated Video Engagement

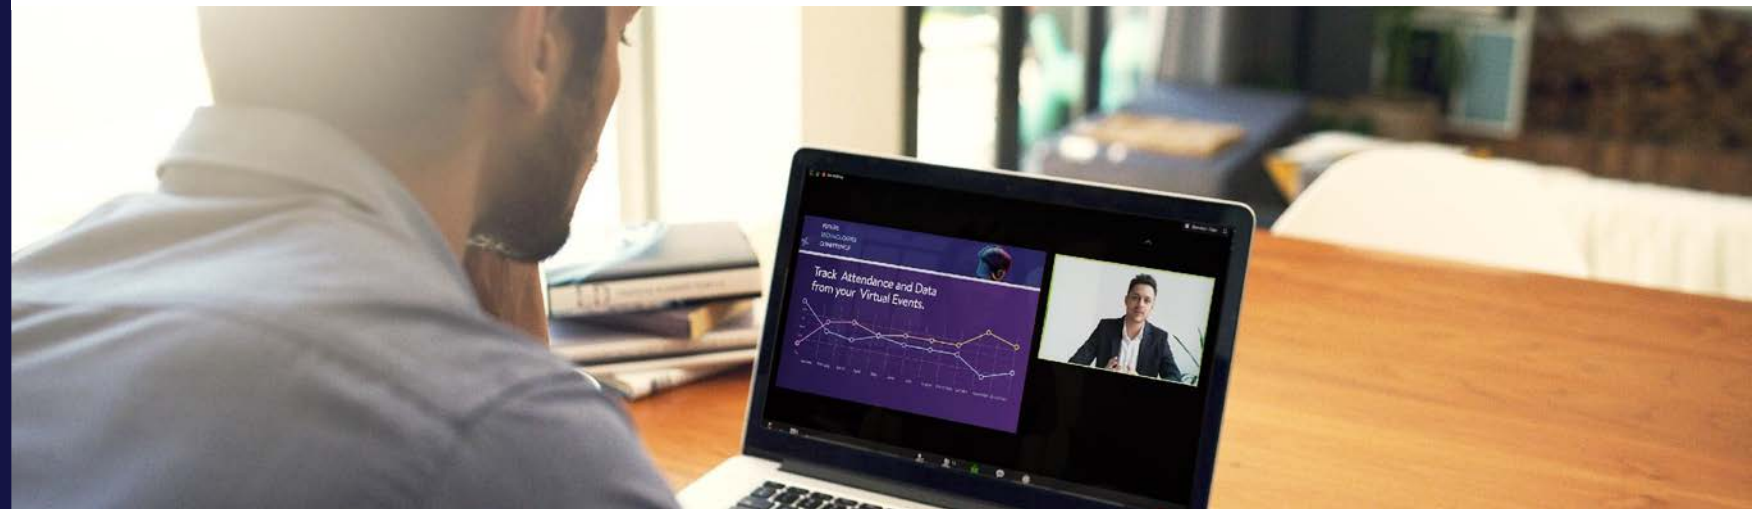

Stream live or pre-recorded sessions with engagement features like live Q&A, chat, polling and feedback surveys to keep sessions interactive.

Meeting Scheduling

Add Cvent Appointments so attendees, exhibitors, sponsors and staff can connect virtually.

CEU & Attendance Tracking

Get a full picture of your attendees' event journeys. You can even auto-award credits and certificates based on event participation.

Chime Go for In-Person Meetings

With in-person meetings, it's often the added touches that show participants you appreciate their attendance and want them to have a great experience.

Give them Chime Go to put your event agenda at their fingertips, so they can check what's ahead and where they need to be next.

Your Encore expert will set up Chime Go with your event details and branding.

During your meeting, attendees can submit and upvote questions they most want answered.

Participants can also take notes and send to themselves -- all from their own devices.

chime live

Choreographed Event Experiences

Our Chime Live engagement platform transforms any event experience with a full-service end-to-end solution tailored to your unique event needs.

We customise Chime Live to tell your story and highlight what's important, driving engagement to deliver the outcomes you need — before, during and after your event.

Chime Live delivers seamless connectivity for in-person and online participants for mid-size events anywhere in the world.

Chime Live Highlights

In-Person & Online

Give in-room participants a second screen experience and make online attendees feel part of the show.

Choreographed Event Design

Focus attendees on what they need to see or do in the platform. Push slides and pop-up interactive polls, Q&A and more — right on cue.

Personalised Journeys

Create segmented or integrated experiences, including the ability to move online participants to the right sessions.

Virtual Expos and Conferences

Immerse remote attendees in event spaces that emulate the in-person experience with the Notified Virtual Event platform.

Encore and Notified are redesigning the shared event experience to bring you seamless, large-scale conferences and exhibitions with a virtual element — including in-app studio quality streaming, production expertise and creative services.

Notified® Virtual Event Platform Highlights

Virtual Environments

Create virtual 2D or 3D environments that imitate a physical conference, including lobbies, theaters, virtual booths and networking lounges.

Studio Quality Streaming

Notified Studio solutions make it easy for presenters to self-record or work with a producer for TV-quality streaming and custom layouts.

Robust Engagement

Elevate engagement with AI-driven matchmaking and video chat options that connect in-person & remote participants — anywhere in the world.

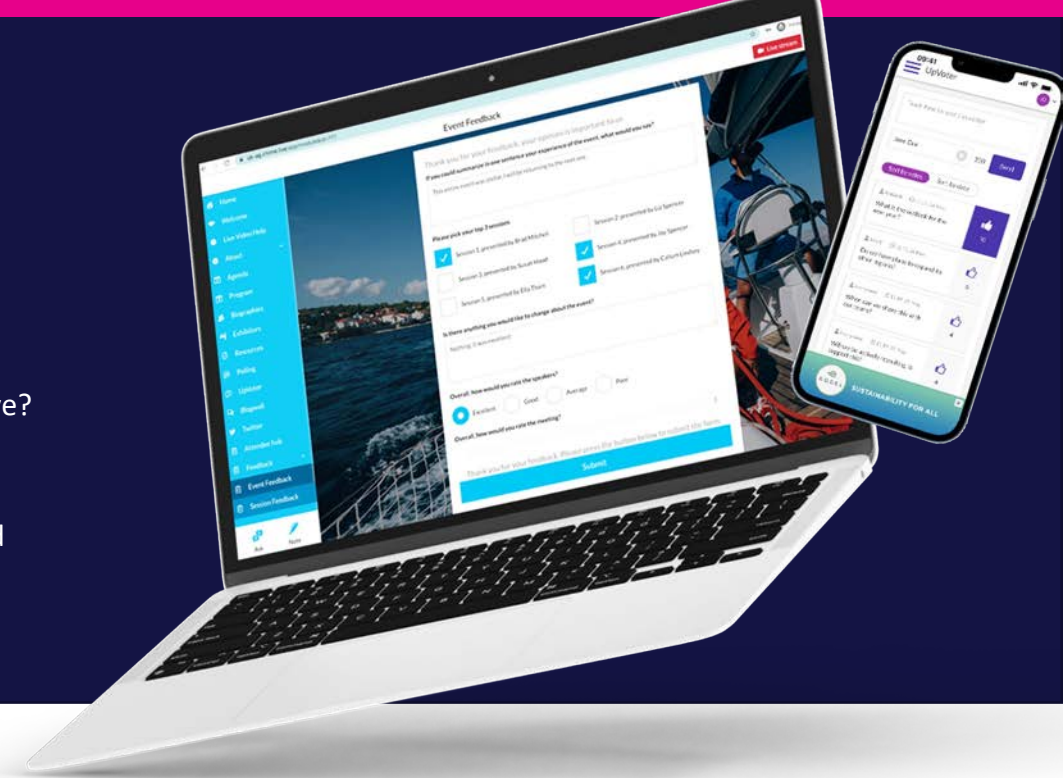

Let's Chat

Let's collaborate and discuss your objectives, audience participation goals, stakeholders' expectations, desired outcomes and more.

We'll ask a range of questions like:

- > Are there learning objectives for participants to achieve?
- > What do you want your audience to think and feel?
- > Do you need to engage participants before, during and after the event?
